The IHTC envisions a network of trails that stretch from the shores of Lake Erie to the confluence of Three Rivers in Pittsburgh and on to the Ohio River and the Appalachian foothills of West Virginia. This connected off-road trail system will allow locals and visitors to explore the small towns, major cities, historical sites, rivers and mountains that characterize America’s first frontier. In this region, one discovers the birthplace of America’s industrial revolution.

IHeartTrails.org